

Privacy Policy

Effective date: August 13, 2026

HALL Industries, Inc. and its affiliated divisions (collectively, "HALL Industries," "we," "us," or "our") respect your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and protect personal information obtained through hallindustries.com, our communications, and our business relationships.

Information we collect

We may collect information that you provide directly, including your name, company, mailing address, email address, telephone or mobile number, employment information, and the contents of inquiries or other communications. We may also collect records of your communication preferences, including consent to receive text messages and opt-out requests.

When you visit our website, our systems or service providers may automatically collect limited technical information, such as your IP address, browser type, device information, referring pages, and information about how you use the website.

How we use information

We may use personal information to respond to inquiries; prepare quotations; fulfill orders; provide products, services, support, and project communications; manage customer, vendor, and other business relationships; evaluate employment applications; maintain and improve our website and operations; protect our systems and rights; comply with legal obligations; and carry out other purposes disclosed when information is collected.

Text messaging and mobile information

If you consent to receive text messages, we use your mobile number and consent records to provide the conversational or informational communications you requested. Message frequency varies, and message and data rates may apply. You may reply STOP to opt out or HELP for assistance. Additional information appears in our SMS Terms and Conditions.

No mobile opt-in information or text messaging consent will be shared with third parties or affiliates for their own marketing or promotional purposes. We may share information with service providers that help us operate our communications systems, but only as necessary for them to provide services on our behalf.

How we disclose information

We may disclose personal information to vendors and service providers that perform services for us, such as website hosting, information technology, communications, shipping, professional services, and security. We may also disclose information when required by law; to respond to lawful requests; to protect the rights, safety, and property of HALL Industries or others; or in connection with a merger, financing, acquisition, sale, or other business transaction.

We do not sell or rent mobile opt-in information or text messaging consent.

Data retention and security

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this policy, to meet our business needs, and to comply with legal obligations. We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect personal information. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure, however, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

Your choices

You may choose not to provide certain information, although doing so may limit our ability to respond or provide requested services. You may opt out of text messages by replying STOP. You may also contact us to request that we update your contact information or communication preferences.

Third-party websites

Our website may contain links to websites operated by third parties. Their privacy practices are governed by their own policies, and HALL Industries is not responsible for those practices.

Children's privacy

Our website and services are intended for business and employment-related audiences and are not directed to children under 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 through the website.

Changes to this policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Changes will be posted with a revised effective date.
